NARRATIVE:

Roy Sotello is a sex offender and documented gang member with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. His convictions include rape, battery with injury, possession of a firearm by felon, burglary, multiple sex registration violations, vandalism, battery, being under the influence of controlled substances, false identification to peace officers, resisting arrest, terrorist threats-hate crime, possession of controlled substances and DUI on bicycle. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 3 year term for a sex offender violation. Sotello was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on June 18, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in July 2015 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Sotello qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for a sex offender violation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status, gang member status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
